

About Me

My name is Mialin Amato and I was born in Fuling, China. I met my “forever family” in February of 2003 when I was 9 months old. I was raised in Miami by my mother and grandmother. A few years later my mother and I went back to China and came back with my little sister, Bianca.

My mother signed me up for GMYS when I was 7 years old and have been a member of this great organization ever since. They provided me with an instrument and free lessons giving me the opportunity to explore music. I’ve also been attending GMYS’s summer camps since that age. During the summer, I get to grow musically instead of losing what I learn during the school year. I was inspired to enroll in Arvida Middle School so I can continue playing under a great GMYS teacher Vivian Ventura.

Now that I’ve been playing for about six years, I have tried out for All State, gotten a superior rating in solo & ensemble, and competed in several concerto competitions. Ms. Ventura also involves us in numerous community service performances such as playing at nursing homes, the JCC, for schools with special needs children, and even McDonalds Restaurant.

I truly enjoy playing the violin and hope to play it continuously through high school and even college. I am currently preparing for my audition to Coral Reef Senior High School’s orchestra program. I am looking forward to GMYS’s Advanced Summer Camp to prepare for the many challenges ahead.
