

Louise T. Jeroslow has her own law firm, "The Law Firm of Louise T. Jeroslow, P.A." in South Miami, Florida. Ms. Jeroslow obtained her B.A. degree cum laude in psychology from Florida International University on 1978 and her Juris Doctor from Florida State University in 1984, where she was a member of and contributor to the Environmental Law Review. She was admitted to The Florida Bar in 1985. Her principle areas of practice are administrative law, professional licensing, mental health and bioethical issues, Medicare/Medicaid overpayment issues and sanctions, medical staff and credentialing matters, and corporate matters. She serves as counsel to acute care and psychiatric hospitals, physicians, nursing homes and home health agencies. She is a Board member and past chair of the Miami Chapter of American Civil Liberties Union, a member of the American Health Lawyers Association and Florida Association of Hospital Attorneys and serves on the Board of Douglas Gardens Mental Health Facility. Her interests include the arts and cooking.